

Red House Interpretive Center 2015 Summer Speaker's Series

This summer the Red House Interpretive Committee will be offering a special speaker/workshop series on the following Saturdays of each month from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. to highlight different aspects of our pioneer history in the Southeast Missouri region. Each workshop is free and will last approximately one hour. Come join us for a fun and educational "Living History" experience after a visit to the downtown Farmers Market, and then enjoy a stroll downtown for lunch and shopping. All ages are welcome and participants are encouraged to bring a lawn chair.
