

Friday, September 30: Special Events

6:30 p.m.: Kick off concert at the Common Pleas Courthouse Gazebo featuring music through the years narrated by Mark Twain. Dennis Stroughmatt & the Cajun Band, Steve Schaffner & Derrick Irwin & the Jerry Ford Swing Band. Old St. Vincent's is the rain location.*

Saturday, October 1: Special Events

10 a.m. - 2 p.m.: Tea in the carriage house at the Glenn House. Pre-registration required.*

11 a.m.: John Hatten from the LST Memorial 325 speaks at the Cape River Heritage Museum followed by free hotdogs at noon.

12 p.m.; Billy O'Donnell, plein air painter, speaks at Crisp Museum. $10 fee.*

1 - 2 p.m.: Fireman's demonstration at the Cape River Heritage Museum followed by children's music & games from 2 - 3 p.m.

2 p.m.: John Tallent, Master Chief Engineer of the LST Memorial 325 will speak at Crisp Museum.

3 p.m.: Dennis Stroughmatt performs at the Red House Interpretive Center.

5 p.m.: Presentation on architect JB Legg at Heritage Hall.

Sunday, October 2: Special Events

11 a.m.: Period worship service at Fort D Historic Site with music by the Front Porch Players.

1 - 2 p.m.: Fireman's demonstration at the Cape River Heritage Museum followed by children's music & games from 2 - 3 p.m.

1 - 3 p.m.: Tours of the Flag House at 740 North Street.

2 p.m.: Gregory Wolk presents on the Civil War at Crisp Museum.

2 - 4 p.m.: Living history at Fairmont Cemetery (Caruthers & Dunklin streets), with Full Military Honors at 2:30 p.m. for the U.S. Colored Troops of Cape Girardeau. Cape Public Library is the rain location.*

VisitCape.com/HeritageDays has full details!

Hey WWII history buffs! The LST Memorial 325 is in town during Heritage Days - learn more at VisitCape.com/LST