 2. Those eligible will include workers from temporary services such as manpower who meet the above criteria. If a protest is lodged regarding the eligibility of a participant, the burden of proof rests on the participant and his/her company's Corporate Games Team Representative.
 3. Individuals who during the year compete as a player in any intercollegiate athletic program such as basketball shall not be eligible for those events in the 2014 Corporate Games. Use of such a student-athlete will result in the disqualification of the entire team for that event. Any person with professional status in a given event, based on the criteria of the national governing body for that event, is ineligible to compete in the event in which the person carries the professional status.
- WAIVERS: All participants of the 2014 Corporate Games will be required to sign the roster/waiver form provided. The roster/waiver forms should be turned in along with team grids and entry fees by August 22nd at 5:00 p.m.
- AWARDS: A plaque will be awarded to the winning team, in each division, at the end of each event. In the event of a tie, points at stake will be divided evenly between the two teams. The overall winner of each division at the conclusion of the event will receive the "Corporate Cup".

TIES: Ties in the standing for the grand champion trophy will use the following tie-breaker formula:

1. The team with the most 1st place finishes.
2. The team with the most 2nd place finishes.
3. The team with the most 3rd place finishes.

SCORING: 10 points will be awarded for each event in which a team participates. Teams must compete in the entire competition to receive participation points. A 10-point deduction will be taken for forfeits. If an event has to be rescheduled after the original schedule has come out, a team may drop out due to previous commitments without taking a -10 points, provided they let the event coordinator know prior to the day of the event.

30 points – first place

20 points – second place

10 points – third place

DIVISIONS: Division I – 100 employees or more (must compete in at least 17 of 22 events)

Division II – 26 to 99 employees (must compete in at least 15 of 20 events)

Not-for-Profit Division – must compete in at least 15 of 20 events

ROSTERS: Team rosters must be typed or printed and must include the name of the team captain. Rosters must be submitted prior to the event. If a roster is not received, your company will not be able to enter a team in that specific event. If a team captain is also a player, his/her name must be included on the roster.

CHECK-IN: Team captains are responsible for team check-in with the event coordinator 15 minutes prior to the start of an event.

SCHEDULING: Company team coordinators will be notified of all event schedules by September 10th, 2014, along with location of events. Event times are approximate and may vary due to weather and/or delays in event time schedules. Please remember: GAME TIME IS FORFEIT TIME.

Event formats will be determined based upon number of teams entering each event.

PROTESTS: All protests are determined by the Corporate Games Director and a committee comprised of the event coordinators. Protests must be written and submitted to the Event Director by 5:00 p.m. the next day. Decisions will be made as soon as possible. A protest may be filed on a question of the eligibility of an opponent or other game rules. No protest may be filed based solely on a judgement call of an official.

TEAM SUPPLIES/ Teams must supply their own equipment except for game balls, etc.

UNIFORMS:

The Parks & Recreation Department will order team uniforms. All sizes and colors are due at the registration deadline. If not, your shirts will be late. Extra t-shirts may be ordered for $6.50/shirt ($1.00 extra for 2XL). Teams must also supply their own water and supplemental drink for their members.

PARTICIPANT BEHAVIOR:

Unsportsmanlike conduct will not be tolerated. Unsportsmanlike conduct includes but is not limited to profanity, intentionally trying to injure another participant and abusive behavior toward officials, participants and/or spectators. Captains are responsible for the behavior of their team members and fans. Failure to control an unruly team member or fan may result in a team's forfeiture of the game. All concerns over unsportsmanlike conduct should be addressed to the event coordinator.

SUBSTITUTION:

In the event of a professional, personal or medical emergency with a team member that leaves a team facing forfeiture of an event, the team captain may choose any other member from the company team's master roster. A player not available for an event because he/she is competing in another event does constitute an emergency. Substitutes must be made man for man or woman for woman. A team has 10 minutes from game time to fill a player vacancy due to an emergency situation.
