Parking in certain parts of Cape Girardeau will be restricted due to the SEMO Homecoming Parade scheduled for 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, October 4, 2014. The Cape Girardeau Police Department has announced that beginning at 2:00 a.m. on October 4, 2014, parking will be prohibited on both sides of Broadway from North West End Blvd. to Main Street; on Main Street from Park Drive to William Street; on North West End Blvd. from Broadway to Parkview Drive; on the east side of Perry Avenue from Broadway on Parkview; on both sides of Bellevue in front of Houck Stadium; and on both sides of Houck Place.

Officers will place signs and other traffic control devices at the above locations. Vehicles parked after 2:00 a.m. on Saturday, October 4, 2014 will be towed from the street. Parking will be restored on the City streets immediately following the parade with the exception of Bellevue. These precautions are being taken for the safety of the spectators and those participating in the Homecoming Parade.
