BANK OF MISSOURI ROBBERY

On January 10, 2013 at 10:18 a.m. officers from the Cape Girardeau Police Department responded to an alarm at the Bank of Missouri, 1622 North Kingshighway. When officers arrived, they found that a subject had entered the bank and demanded money.

The subject was described as approximately 6'0", thin build; wearing a blue jean shirt, blue jeans, and a camouflage hat.

The subject left the bank with an undisclosed amount of money. No weapon was displayed and no one was reportedly injured.

The case is still under investigation.
