FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

If I am going to Cape Splash but do not plan to swim, do I need to pay admission?
Yes, all persons entering the facility must pay the admission rate or have their season pass.

Can I bring in my own food & drinks?
Outside food and drink are not allowed in the facility.

What is Cape Splash's inclement weather policy?
During inclement weather, Cape Splash reserves the right to close or require patrons to exit the water until safe conditions exist. Rain Passes will be issued to those patrons with receipts who have been in the facility less than two hours. No refunds will be issued at anytime. If daytime air temperatures are not projected to get above 72 degrees, the facility will not open for the day. Call the Rainout Line at 573-975-1024 for weather updates.

Can I pay my daily admission and leave for awhile, then come back?
Once you are inside the gates, there is no re-entry and you will have to pay the entry rate again.

Can I drop my kids off and pick them up later?
Parents are required to watch their children and to assist in enforcing the policies for the safety and enjoyment of all patrons. All children under 12 years of age must be accompanied and supervised by a paying adult. All children eight years and younger must be within arm's length of an adult at all times.

Can I bring in outside flotation devices?
All rafts, tubes, water noodles, etc. are not permitted. Children may wear U.S. Coast Guard approved flotation devices, however they must be within arm's reach of a supervising adult at all times.

Can anyone ride the slides?
For everyone's safety, individuals must meet the height requirements per the slide manufacturers mandate.
In addition, the slides are not intended for use by those who are pregnant or weighing 300+ pounds.

What happens if Cape Splash reaches capacity?
When Cape Splash reaches capacity, it will be posted on our Rainout Line and the front gates will be closed. As people leave the water park, more people will be let in. If you choose to wait in line, please be advised that temperatures could be high and proper hydration is necessary.

Is there a clear bag policy?
Yes, we are dedicated to providing a fun and safe experience for both our guests and staff. To enhance security, metal detectors may be used at the entrance when necessary. Additionally, we will be enforcing a clear bag policy. Each guest is permitted to bring one clear or mesh bag of any size, along with a small clutch no larger than 4.5" x 6.5". Clear bags can be purchased at the Osage Centre and all aquatic facilities.
